Admissions NSW

Schools Recommendation Schemes (SRS)

Online SRS applications will open on Wednesday 5 August 2015 and close at 5.00pm, Wednesday 30 September 2015.

From 2015, eligible students attending New South Wales Griffith Connect Partner schools have the opportunity to apply for Guaranteed Admission into a range of Griffith University programs through the Schools Recommendation Schemes (SRS). This scheme grants ATAR and International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma students who are UAC applicants for undergraduate admission for 2015–16 eligible to apply.

Griffith University will notify successful students in November and their certificates and offer letter will be mailed directly to them. Students who have finalised their UAC application and placed their successful Griffith Connect Guaranteed Admission program as highest eligible preference on their TAC application will have their formal offer forced through UAC in the November or December early round offer. Students who do not have their Connect offer as their highest eligible preference, but listed in their UAC preferences, will receive their offer in the main offer round in January.

Applying for Connect Guaranteed Admission Scheme

Once students have applied through UAC for undergraduate admission, they can apply online for SRS via the UAC website using their UAC application number and UAC PIN. Students can only submit one SRS application. To start an application, visit the SRS website and select ‘SRS Apply’ on the right hand side of the webpage.

Resources for staff

The schedule of programs included in this scheme, the eligibility criteria for each program and students eligibility can be accessed via the Griffith Connect Guaranteed Admissions Scheme Schedule.
